

Mass hunger threatens global aid crisis

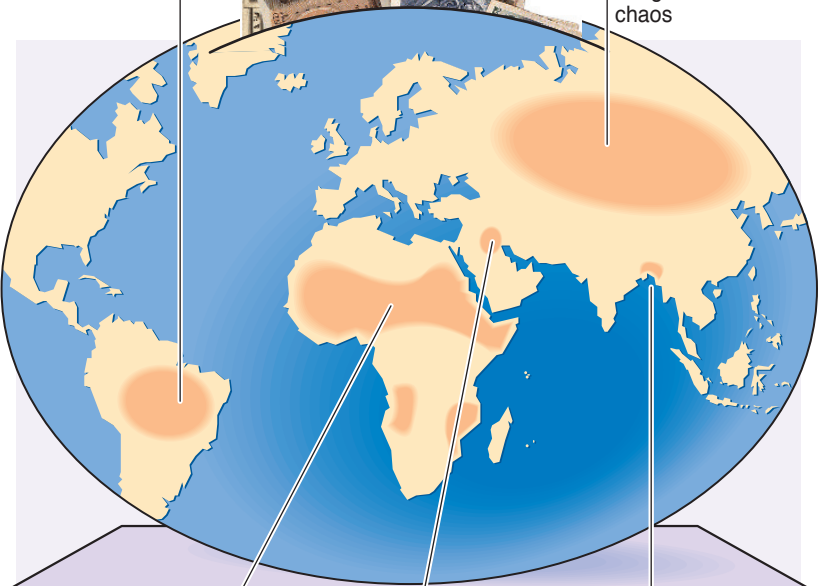

International relief agencies are being stretched to breaking point by war, famine and natural disaster

Latin America

Grain harvest threatened after drought in Brazil

Soviet Union

Serious food shortages predicted due to agricultural chaos

Africa

Drought and civil war threaten 27 million people with famine

Kurdistan

Gulf war has left 2 million displaced people facing food shortages

Bangladesh

Rice growing areas devastated by cyclone. 10 million people now face starvation. A bad harvest in the autumn could affect 20 million people