

Haitians flee to United States

Since the military coup on September 30 4,500 Haitians have escaped to the U.S.
Thousands more are feared to have drowned

November 23-24: 1,197 refugees intercepted by U.S. coastguard

November 20:
Canadian diplomatic mission occupied by protesters

November 27
Protesters threaten to blow up mission if demands for political asylum are not met

Detained refugees held on coastguard ships. New refugee camp planned for 3,000

