

Paul Simon tour bomb

Black radical groups have threatened to use violence to disrupt Paul Simon's controversial tour of South Africa

Tuesday, January 7: Bomb explodes in
Johannesburg

Saturday, January 11:
Tour starts
Ellis Park,
Johannesburg

Cape
Town

Port Elizabeth

Durban

Tour supported by:

Pik Botha, foreign affairs minister; Nelson Mandela, ANC leader; Inkatha Freedom Party

Opposed by:

Azanian People's organisation (APO); Pan Africanist Congress