

War costs recovered

The Gulf war cost the UK £2.5 billion. £2 billion will be recouped from foreign governments. Repair contracts to UK companies will provide the remaining £500 million

Major contracts awarded to:

Morrison Construction, repairs to water system, ferry terminal, aircraft hangars;

Bechtel, restoring crude oil facilities, providing oil fire-fighting equipment, repairing jetties, terminals and roads;

Taylor Woodrow, Amec, Wimpey, refurbishing oil wells;

Babcock Construction, repairing power stations and hospitals.

Other contracts to: Land Rover, GEC, Lloyds Bank, Airbus Industrie, Brown and Root, Cable and Wireless