

Dubrovnik's wounds of war

On December 6, the last day of the nine week siege of Dubrovnik, the Old Town received 650 direct hits from Yugoslav artillery. A United Nations study reports damage inflicted to 56% of the 824 structures in old Dubrovnik

Franciscan Friary
received 33
direct hits

Onofrio's Fountain
large hole
in cupola

DUBROVNIK

Placa (Stradun)
47 shell and rocket craters
along marble promenade

Rooftops
extensive damage to tiles

Mount Srd

Serb-dominated federal army
still controls
surrounding heights and
approach roads

Dominican Monastery
paintings
damaged
by shrapnel

Sponza Palace
several direct hits

Old Synagogue
extensive fire damage

Church of St Blaise stained glass shattered