

Julie Ward's final journey

KENYA

On September 2, 1988, British tourist Julie Ward set out from Nairobi to spend a weekend photographing wild life in Kenya's Masai Mara game reserve. She was never seen alive again

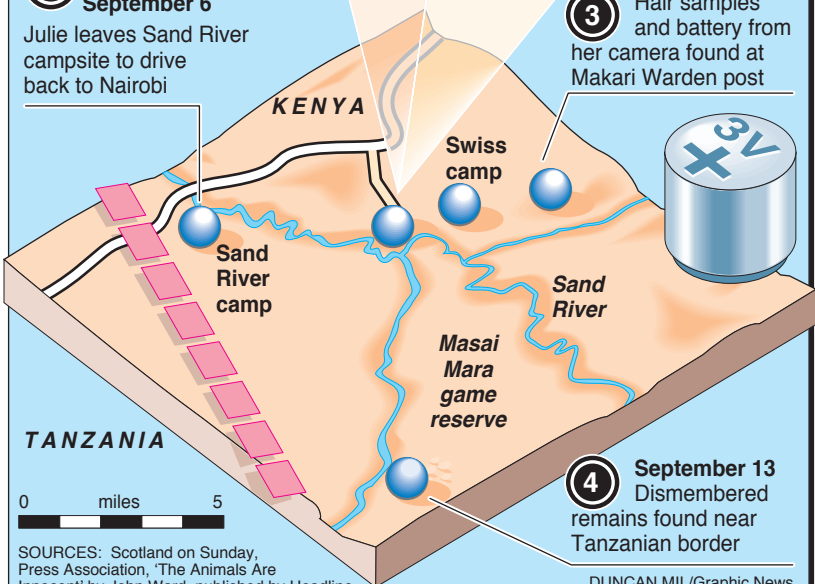

② Jeep becomes stuck after Julie turns off main road. She writes SOS on the roof in mud

① September 6

Julie leaves Sand River campsite to drive back to Nairobi

③ Hair samples and battery from her camera found at Makari Warden post

KENYA

Swiss camp

Sand River camp

Sand River

Masai Mara game reserve

TANZANIA

0 miles 5

④ September 13
Disembodied remains found near Tanzanian border

SOURCES: Scotland on Sunday, Press Association, 'The Animals Are Innocent' by John Ward, published by Headline

DUNCAN MIL/Graphic News