

Tory marginals – key seats at risk

One in six voters lives in a marginal constituency, and will decide the outcome of the election. Each party has a hit list of seats to win, with the SNP confident it can gain three Tory seats in Scotland

Labour

- 1 York
- 2 Ayr (George Younger)
- 3 W'hampton NE
- 4 Dulwich
- 5 Wallasey (Lynda Chalker)
- 6 Nottingham E
- 7 Stirling (Michael Forsyth)
- 8 Thurrock
- 9 Ipswich
- 10 Bolton NE
- 11 Battersea
- 12 Lancashire W

Liberal Democrat

- 1 Portsmouth S
- 2 Stockton S
- 3 Cambridgeshire NE
- 4 Edinburgh W
- 5 Hereford
- 6 Bath (Chris Patten)

SNP

- 1 Perth and Kinross
- 2 Tayside N
- 3 Galloway (Ian Lang)

Map of the United Kingdom showing marginal constituencies. Constituencies marked with blue dots include: Tayside N, Perth and Kinross, Stirling, Edinburgh W, Ayr, Galloway, York, Bolton NE, Nottingham E, Wallasey, Wolverhampton NE, Hereford, Cambs NE, Ipswich, Thurrock, Bath, and Portsmouth S.

London's marginals: All three major parties consider London to be a special case which may produce some dramatic upsets

● Conservative ● Labour ● Liberal Democrat ● SDP