

Iraq warned by allies

Britain, France and the U.S. have issued a stern warning to Iraq that attacks against Kurds must cease, that no combat aircraft should fly north of the 36th parallel, missiles must be removed and that Iraq should not track allied aircraft with radar

