

BOSNIA PEACEKEEPERS 'Operation Grapple' gets under way

2,400 British troops are deployed on 'Operation Grapple', providing much-needed relief to war-torn Bosnia. The British contingent forms part of the 7,000-strong UN peacekeeping force, UNPROFOR 2. UNPROFOR 1, 15,000 troops from 26 countries, is deployed in Croatia

Warrior: 10-man infantry fighting vehicle. 30mm Rarden cannon, 7.62mm chain gun

Other UN forces in Bosnia

- Canada: 1,200 troops plus armoured personnel carriers; Banja Luka
- France: 1,100 plus helicopters/ light armour; Bihac
- Netherlands: 940 plus cargo trucks; Vitez, Banja Luka
- Spain: 700 plus light armour; Mostar
- Denmark: 151 HQ staff; Kiseljak
- Belgium: 100-strong transport company; Vitez
- Norway: 35 engineers; Kiseljak
- Portugal: 10-15 medics; Bihac
- United States: 300-strong MASH unit in Zagreb

FV-432: armoured personnel carrier. Ambulance or command vehicle

Scimitar: armoured reconnaissance vehicle armed with 30mm Rarden cannon, 7.62mm machine gun

Spartan: armoured personnel carrier. Armed with 13 MILAN anti-tank missiles

Key: Serb front line (red line) UN ceasefire line (green dotted line) Under Serb control (pink area) Proposed supply routes (pink line)