

The world rallies to save Somalia

United States

28,000 troops committed including 1,800 Marines aboard 3 ships currently off Somali coast. U.S. has provided 200,000 tons of food to date. U.S. planes have airlifted relief supplies within Somalia and to refugee camps in Kenya

France

2,000 troops to leave Djibouti Dec 7 to join U.S. forces. Has sent relief supplies to date

Canada

To send 900 troops, equipped with armoured personnel carriers. $20m in aid contributed so far

Belgium

550 paratroopers on 48 hour standby for one year tour of duty

Egypt

300-600 troops on standby

Italy

1,500 troops by Christmas, consisting of marines, paratroops and support units

Pakistan

550 peacekeepers currently deployed at Mogadishu Airport

Turkey

Awaiting parliamentary approval before sending 400-500 troops

Mauritania

300 troops on standby

Nigeria

Ready to participate but contribution not yet specified

United Kingdom

4 transport aircraft and $7m pledged. $49m given so far this year

Japan

Logistical support offered for international force. $27m aid programme announced

Others

Tunisia ready to participate, Kuwait and UAE willing to send troops