

Iraq's second raid

About 150 Iraqis crossed into Kuwait and started dismantling warehouses on Monday. This followed Sunday's raid to seize military equipment left over from the Gulf War. Weapons – including Silkworm missiles – were taken from a UN camp south of Iraq's former naval base at Umm Qasr

