

Call to close Europe's 'dangerous' reactors

A Western emergency programme to upgrade 32 Soviet-built nuclear reactors requiring basic safety improvements excludes 16 Chernobyl-type reactors and 10 older pressurised-water reactors which, experts say, should be shut down – a demand resisted by eastern European countries strapped for energy

0 km 800

