

Reactor closed

A nuclear reactor in southeast Sweden will remain closed following the discovery of cracks in stainless steel cooling pipes. The reactor was closed last September for emergency repairs

