

A country in total despair

Under Sunday's ceasefire agreement, Srebrenica will be demilitarised by April 21 with Canadian UN troops taking responsibility for security in the town. Muslims must disarm while Serbs redeploy outside a zone to be agreed. General Morillon believes Srebrenica has been saved, enabling the Vance-Owen plan to proceed

