

NATO boosts airpower over Bosnia

British and Turkish planes have joined U.S., Dutch and French aircraft enforcing the 'no-fly' zone over Bosnia from bases in Italy. Eight violations by Serbian aircraft have been detected since 'Operation Deny Flight' began on April 12

Where allied airpower could strike the Serbs

- 1, 5, 7, 11 Radar stations
- 2, 3 Helicopter airfields
- 4 Airfield; Weapons factories;
- First Krajina Corp; Surface-to-air missile (SAM) batteries
- 6 Second Krajina Corp
- 8 Third Northern Bosnia Corp
- 9 Bosnian Serb supreme command; East Bosnian Army Corp; SAM batteries
- 10 Serb parliament; SAM batteries

