

VANCE-OWEN PLAN

Countdown to peace in Bosnia

NATO officials have submitted plans to the United Nations to enforce the Vance-Owen peace agreement on Bosnia with the deployment of up to 75,000 troops. The operation – NATO's largest military undertaking to date – will include up to 30,000 U.S. and 9,000 British soldiers

Cease-fire:

Due to take effect within 3 days of United Nations approval of the Vance-Owen peace plan

Heavy weapons:

Must be pulled back from around Sarajevo within five days of the cease-fire

Withdrawal:

Troops from all three sides must withdraw to provinces set down in the plan within the following 40 days

Current front lines

Proposed UN-monitored corridor

Vance-Owen territorial plan