

Gentlemen's 1993 speed rankings

Germany's Michael Stich heads this year's IBM rankings with a sizzling 131mph service clocked up in the Australian Open. In an era of fast serves, only 9mph separates top scorer Stich from the man ranked 20th on the list

Michael Stich Germany	131mph (211kmh)
Brian Dunn USA	128mph (206kmh)
Richard Krajicek Holland	127mph+ (205kmh)
Pete Sampras USA	127mph (204 kmh)
Guy Forget France	126mph (203kmh)
Goran Ivanisevic Croatia	126mph (203kmh)
Sandor Noszaly Hungary	126mph (203kmh)
Jonathan Stark USA	126mph (203kmh)
Henrik Holm Sweden	125mph+ (202kmh)
Henri Leconte France	125mph (201kmh)
Alberto Mancini Argentina	125mph (201kmh)
Marc Rosset Switzerland	125mph (201kmh)

© GRAPHIC NEWS

Serves recorded on stadium court – must be in play to count. + denotes conversion difference

SOURCE: IBM – official supplier of information technology to all four Grand Slam tournaments