

Time up for 10p piece

From June 30 the old ten pence piece will cease to be legal tender. The introduction last September of a smaller, lighter coin marked the completion of decimalisation of Britain's coinage, ending circulation of the two-shilling piece, or florin

