

Operation Irma gathers momentum

France:
96 victims treated to date. Offer of 10 more beds

UK: Hospitals willing to treat 20 patients. Medical teams in Italy

Holland: Providing at least 5 hospital beds. $1.5m dollars available to fund evacuation

Norway: 10 children treated in 1992. Offer to treat more children. Airliner available to fly victims to Oslo

Ireland:
Will accept 5 patients

Sweden: 16 hospital beds available, Military air transport on stand-by. Medical teams in Italy

Germany: 120 ill or war-wounded treated since February. Islamic Relief Organisation offer to fund childrens' hospital treatment

Sarajevo

United States:
UN proposal to move MASH (Mobile Army Surgical Hospital) unit including 60-bed care unit to Sarajevo

Canada: Willing to accept 20 patients

Ancona

Since the plight of 5-year old Irma Hadzimuratovic forced western Europe to respond to the agony of Bosnia's children, London's Great Ormond Street Hospital has received over 11,000 calls from well-wishers and been flooded with gifts of toys, clothes cards and cash.

Here are some other ways you can help the children of Bosnia and the 3.6 million refugees throughout former Yugoslavia

Donations

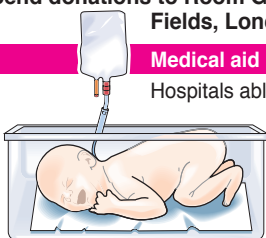

United Nations High Commission for Refugees
Donations, marked Bosnia, to UNHCR Action, P.O. Box 2500, 1211 Geneva 2 Depot, Switzerland
The International Committee of the Red Cross
Donations to Swiss Bank Corp, 1211 Geneva 11.
Account No. 129.986.0

UNICEF provides medical supplies, safe water, blankets and shelter to children on all sides of the conflict and has a programme to help the one million children suffering effects of trauma. An appeal for £53m has raised £9.3m to date.

Send donations to Room GN, UK Committee for UNICEF, 55 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3NB. Tel: 071 405 5592

Medical aid

Hospitals able to offer aid should contact national governments or the International Organisation for Migration in Geneva
Tel: +41 22 717 9111

Adoption

Discouraged by aid agencies. The policy is to keep children in the region of former Yugoslavia and with relatives if possible

