

Gaza and Jericho – timetable for autonomy

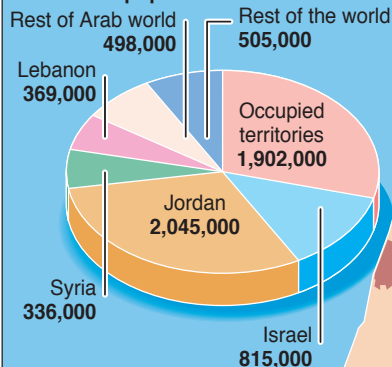

Israel to begin withdrawal of occupying forces from Gaza Strip and Jericho

Direct elections of Palestinian Council to govern Gaza and Jericho for five years. Israeli military to withdraw from all populated areas of West Bank prior to elections

Palestinians to assume gradual responsibility for local services, including police, as autonomy extended across West Bank

Negotiation of permanent status of West Bank, including Jerusalem, and Gaza to start three years into Council's five year term

Palestinian population – worldwide

Palestinian towns and villages

Jewish settlements

Occupied territories

10 miles

16 km

