

Arms cache found in Liverpool

Only days after the death of PC Patrick Dunne in a drugs-related shooting in south London, Merseyside Police have found an arms cache in a Liverpool flat.

The haul – thought to be the arsenal of a local drugs gang – included three Czech-made CZ-25 sub-machine guns complete with 160 rounds of ammunition

CZ-25 (Czech)

9mm sub-machine gun

Folding
metal stock

Magazine:
24 or 40 shot
detachable box

Rate of fire:
600 rounds/min.
Extremely accurate
up to 100 metres

Muzzle velocity:
380m/sec

Sten gun (British)

9mm sub-machine gun

Folding
metal stock

Magazine:
Detachable, side-mounted 32 shot box

Rate of fire:
600 rounds/min.
Inaccurate above
150 metres

Muzzle velocity:
380m/sec

Sterling (British)

9mm sub-machine gun

Extremely robust and reliable

Muzzle velocity:
390m/sec

Rate of fire:
550 rounds/min

Magazine:
34 shot
detachable box