

Sleeping like a top

The spinning top is one of the oldest of children's toys, but an odd comparison to anyone fast asleep. Medieval folk were fascinated by the toy and joked that it was sleeping, because if spun fast enough, perfectly balanced on its point, it appeared not to move. As far back as 1616 sound sleepers were described as sleeping like a top