

GLORY to the new-born king... doesn't time fly when you're having fun. So the festive season is upon us once more!

Light the fires, roast the chestnuts and sit back for a quiz that embraces all the best of Yuletide, the birth of Christ, a choir of heavenly angels, our favourite Christmas movies and, oh yes... don't forget the mistletoe

1: More goddess than angel really, but who cares, it's Christmas! Can you name this movie and its stunning, flame-haired actress?

2: Christmas just wouldn't be Christmas without this essential festive fare. Name the movie and how many of the four leads can you remember?

3: A famous playboy makes the rank of angel before his time is due. Name the actor and the movie

4: A wartime tale of the afterlife. Here we see angels greeting fallen servicemen. Can you name this movie and its famous star?

5: 'He's not the Messiah, He's a very naughty boy', apparently. What is the full title of this irreverent film?

6: 'Every time you hear a bell ring, it means that some angel's just got his wings'. So says Jimmy Stewart's guardian angel. Can you name this classic Christmas story? For a tough one, what did Stewart's character, George Bailey, say to set the whole tale in motion?

7: Is he or isn't he? Santa or fraud? Can you name the little girl who grew up to be a big star? Far too easy... but what is the movie?

8: An angel with a difference. This actor was more famous for his role in a 70s musical. Can you name him and the movie featured here?
