

Diana Fund payout

Trustees of Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Fund have announced the first round of grants worth £13 million to her favourite charities

Princess of Wales Memorial Fund

 Six charities of which the Princess was either patron or president at the time of her death last August will each get a one-time payment of £1 million: Centrepoint, English National Ballet, Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity, Leprosy Mission, National AIDS Trust and the Royal Marsden NHS Trust for cancer

 Another £1 million will be distributed to organizations benefiting landmine victims and a grant of £1 million has also been awarded to The Osteopathic Centre for Children. The Princess was to have launched its fund-raising appeal for a new building

 The remaining £5 million is to be allocated among 100 more groups and charities