

UK and U.S. hit strategic Baghdad targets

The main targets of Operation Desert Fox in the first two nights have been air defence systems and military command centres, mostly in and around Iraq's capital Baghdad, to allow safe passage for subsequent air strikes. At least 25 people are reported killed in the city, with a further 75 injured

Tikrit – Location of two 'palaces'. Iraq says rice warehouse hit

Other weapons development sites

Missiles

Biological

Chemical

Samara
(Holy shrine)
Chemical weapons production

Abu Ghraib
Republican Guard HQ, Five barracks

Al Taji
Airbase/ missile production

RAF Tornado GR-1
Armed with Paveway laser-guided bombs.
Based in Kuwait – 12 involved in second and third strikes

BAGHDAD

Habbaniyah

Yousefiya

Latifiya

Salman Pak

Al Taji Military airport

Ministry of Defence

Mukhabarat Intelligence HQ

Saddam Int'l Airport

Communications Centre

Rashid Hotel

Rashid Military airport

1. Special Security Service HQ

Also location of Mukhabarat's Office 28 – supervises production of weapons of mass destruction

2. Presidential Palace – missed

Hit Saddam's daughter's house nearby