

“Expand-and-share” plan for Jerusalem

Claimed by both Israelis and Palestinians as capital, Jerusalem is one of the key stumbling blocks to peace in the Middle East. Now Israeli negotiators believe a possible solution could be to expand the city boundaries, creating separate capitals in east and west Jerusalem with areas of shared control

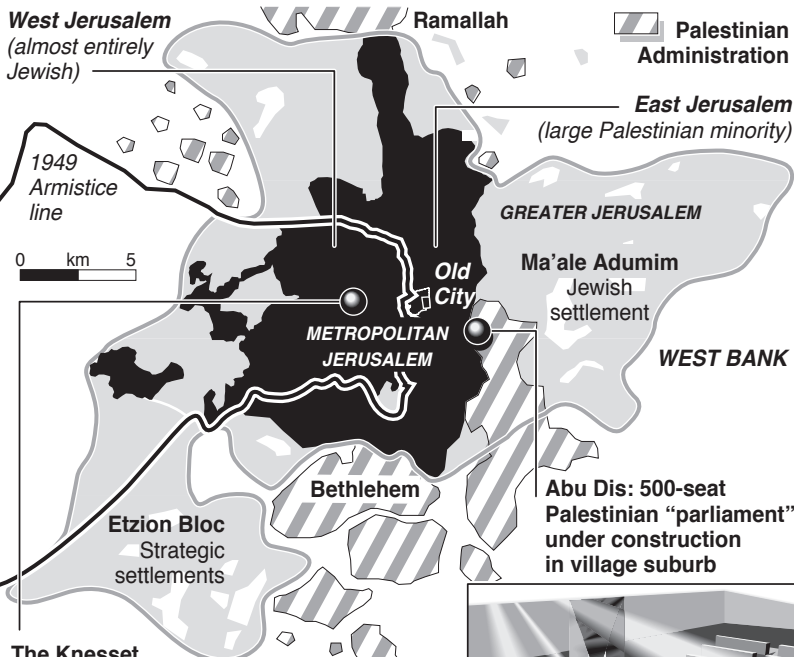

Jerusalem's changing boundaries

West Jerusalem
(almost entirely Jewish)

1949
Armistice line

0 km 5

The Knesset
Home of Israeli parliament since 1966

