

EU set for historic enlargement

The European Union summit in Copenhagen is expected to wrap up accession negotiations for 10 new members, paving the way for the largest expansion of the EU in May 2004 since its establishment over half a century ago

