

Iran missile capable of reaching Israel

Iran has equipped its Revolutionary Guards with a locally made ballistic missile – the Shahab-3 – capable of reaching Israel and U.S. forces stationed in the Middle East. The missile was inaugurated during a military parade before Iran's supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei

Iran

Confirms it has conducted final test of Shahab-3 missile

Range: Up to 1,500km

Height: 16m

Payload: Up to 1,000kg

Developed from North Korean No-Dong missile, with Sino-Soviet technical help

1000km

600 miles

Source: FAS

U.S.: Says missile is threat to region. Accuses Iran of developing nuclear weapons

Ayatollah Ali Khamenei. In charge of Iran's armed forces
© GRAPHIC NEWS

