

Amrozi guilty in first Bali trials verdict

Oct 12, 2002: Two bombs explode in Kuta Beach nightclub district, killing 202, mostly Western tourists

Nov 7: Amrozi bin Nurhasyim (right) arrested in connection with blasts, later paraded smiling in front of media

Nov 21: Imam Samudra arrested – said to be attacks ground commander

Dec 4: Amrozi's brother Mukhlas, alias Ali Gufron, arrested. Alleged chief of operations of Jemaah Islamiah (JI) – militant Southeast Asian network linked to al Qaeda – is accused of having overall responsibility for attack

Feb 11, 2003: Third brother, Ali Imron, shows police how he helped assemble main car bomb

May 12: Amrozi goes on trial charged with planning and carrying out attacks

Jun 2: Trial of Samudra begins

Jun 16: Trial of Mukhlas begins

Jul 21: Trial of Imron begins

Aug 7: Bali court finds Amrozi guilty – sentences him to death by firing squad

Alleged links to al Qaeda

◀ Abu Bakar Bashir: Spiritual leader of Jl, arrested Oct 19, 2002, in connection with earlier terrorist bombings. In Jan 2003 police say Bashir approved Bali attack – Bashir denies any involvement

Hambali: Thought to be operational brain of Jl. Alleged plotter of foiled al Qaeda attempt to blow up U.S. Embassy in Singapore in Dec 2001 ▶

Nov 2002: Tape attributed to Osama bin Laden praises Bali attack

Jul 2003: Alleged Jl treasurer Wan Min Wan Mat tells Bali court that part of group's funding came from al Qaeda