

Israeli army seals Gaza from extremists

The Gaza Strip has been declared a “closed military zone” – barring entry to Jewish ultra-nationalists prior to the final handover to Palestinians in August. Right-wing supporters of the settlers from around Israel have repeatedly clashed with the army who are attempting to remove them

Gaza Strip

Population: Jews 7,500

Palestinians 1.28 million

(Refugees: 907,300)

Far-right Kach movement – mainly right-wing settlers from West Bank – flocking to Gaza

Gush Katif: 150 anti-pullout activists ejected from derelict Palm Beach Hotel

Wednesday night: Israeli missile attack on Beit Hanoun

