

Bird flu threat as dangerous as ever

Scientists meeting in Malaysia warn that nations must do more to prepare for a human pandemic of avian flu. The virus has a firm foothold in east Asia and has so far resisted all efforts to dislodge it from the environment

