

Many nations grieve in London melting pot

London ranks alongside New York as one of the world's most culturally diverse cities, where one in three people belongs to an ethnic minority and 300 languages are spoken. The bomb attacks in Britain's capital claimed victims from across the city's many communities

LONDON'S COSMOPOLITAN POPULATION

White: 5,103,203
(British, Irish, other)

Asian: 866,693
(Indian, Pakistani, Bangladeshi, other)

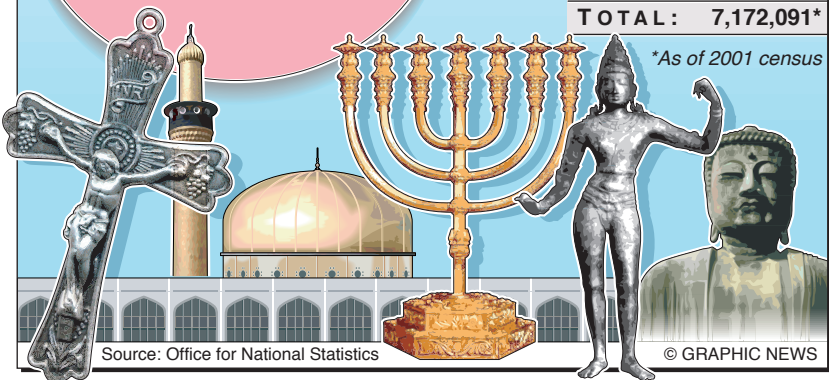

Black: 782,849
(Caribbean, African)

Mixed: 226,111
(white and black Caribbean / African, white and Asian)

Chinese: 193,235

TOTAL: 7,172,091*

*As of 2001 census

Source: Office for National Statistics

© GRAPHIC NEWS