

Britain's biggest ever manhunt

● Jul 7: Four suicide blasts rip through London's transport system during morning rush hour, killing 56 people and wounding 700. Group linked to al-Qaeda claims responsibility

● Jul 12: Police search houses in Leeds, including homes of three of four suspect bombers. Police also find explosives, including nail bomb (below), in rental car in Luton

abc NEWS EXCLUSIVE

● Jul 14: Egyptian biochemist Magdy Mahmoud el-Nashar, 33, detained in Cairo. El-Nashar denies having any role in attacks

● Jul 17: CCTV pictures of suspect bombers at Luton railway station released. Suspects named as Britons of Pakistani descent; Hasib Hussain, 18; Shehzad Tanweer, 22; Mohammed Sadique Khan, 30; and Jamaican-born Briton Germaine Lindsey, 19

● Jul 20: Pakistani intelligence announces arrest of British Muslim Haroon Rashid Aswad in Lahore in connection with bombings

Pictures: Associated Press

● Jul 21: Second wave of suicide attacks. Strikes against three underground trains and London bus botched when all four bombs fail to explode. Wealth of evidence including fingerprints and DNA left behind

● Jul 22: Under controversial "shoot-to-kill" policy, police mistakenly shoot dead innocent Brazilian Jean Charles de Menezes at Stockwell underground station. Menezes, 27, linked to house used by three would-be suicide bombers in Stockwell. Two men arrested under Terrorism Act in Stockwell

● Jul 23: Nail bomb – found by member of public in north-west London park – is linked to attacks, suggesting fifth bomber is on the run

● Jul 24: Police arrest man under Terrorism Act, in Tulsa Hill, south London

● Jul 25: Police release CCTV images of suspects in July 21 attacks. Two are identified as Muktar Said Ibrahim, 27, (top left) and Yasin Hassan Omar, 24, (left). Armed police raid apartment in north London where both suspects were seen three days earlier – day after failed attacks

● Jul 27: Police arrest four men, including Omar, in Birmingham and three women in Stockwell. Omar is overpowered by police using Taser stun gun

● Jul 28: Nine arrested in Tooting area of south London

● Jul 29: Armed police raids in west London. Said Ibrahim, Ramzi Mohammed captured in safe house, fifth suspect – Wahbi Mohammed – arrested a mile away. Osman Hussein, alleged Shepherds Bush bomber, detained in Rome through mobile phone trace

● Jul 31: Seven arrested in Brighton. Two of Osman's brothers in custody in Italy

THE SUSPECTS

Muktar Said Ibrahim: Suspected of leaving bomb on bus in Hackney

Yasin Hassan Omar: Suspected of attempted bombing at Warren Street

Ramzi Mohammed: (Shown top centre) Alleged to have bombed train near Oval

Osman Hussein: (Top right) Suspected of bombing train at Shepherds Bush

CURTIS HOUSE

