

Australia terror threat

Australian police say they have foiled a terrorist attack in the final stages of its preparation, after 16 people were arrested in Sydney and Melbourne. Those detained include an outspoken cleric known as Abu Bakr who is alleged to be the ringleader of both groups

