

World's top drivers in Race of Champions

Top circuit and off-road racers from World Rally, Formula 1, Champ Car, Indycar, Rally-Raid, Motocross, DTM and GP2 will compete on a purpose-built track in France's biggest sports stadium to decide who is fastest

VEHICLES: CIRCUIT DRIVERS

Porsche 911 GT3 3.6-litre, 381hp

Renault Megane Trophy 3.5-litre, 320hp

RALLY DRIVERS

Citroen Xsara WRC 2-litre, 300hp

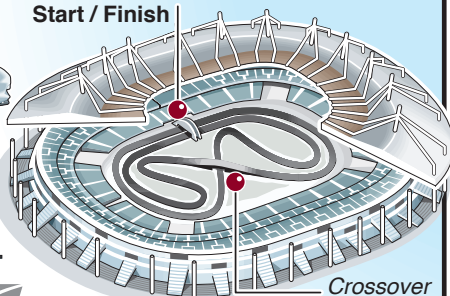

ROC buggy 1.1-litre, 170hp

STADE DE FRANCE: Capacity 80,000.

Drivers race two full laps per heat

Start / Finish

Crossover bridge

Track length: 1km

Width: 7m

RACE OF CHAMPIONS: Drivers divided into two groups, one circuit and one rally, compete in knock-out tournament. Group winners contest best of three heats to become Champion of Champions

NATIONS CUP: Nine teams of two drivers compete in series of rounds, each round decided by best of five heats, for title of World's Fastest Nation

DRIVERS: Nations Cup teams

France	Jean Alesi DTM	Sebastien Loeb WRC
USA	Jeff Gordon NASCAR	Travis Pastrana Motocross
Britain	David Coulthard F1	Colin McRae WRC
Finland	Heikki Kovalainen F1	Marcus Gronholm WRC
Brazil	Felipe Massa F1	Nelson Piquet Jr GP2, A1GP
Scandinavia	Mattias Ekstrom DTM	Tom Kristensen DTM, Le Mans
Benelux	Christijan Albers F1	Francois Duval WRC
PlayStation France	Sebastien Bourdais Champ Car	Stephane Peterhansel Rally-Raid
Germany	Bernd Schneider DTM	Armin Schwarz WRC

Wild card entry (competing in Race of Champions only): Dan Wheldon Indycar

FORMULA BMW CHALLENGE

Formula BMW FB02 1.2-litre, 140hp

Cars race for first time in ROC support programme

