

Many nations falling short on Kyoto targets

PERCENTAGE CHANGE IN EMISSIONS: 1990-2003

-70 -60 -50 -40 -30 -20 -10 0 10 20 30 40 50

■ Targets not met ■ Targets met

Under the United Nations' Kyoto Protocol, industrialised countries have pledged to cut greenhouse gas emissions, mainly carbon dioxide, by 5.2 percent below 1990 levels by 2008-12

TOTAL EMISSIONS:

Million tonnes, 2003

United States: 6,893.8

Russia: 1,872.8

EU 15: 4,179.6

Japan: 1,339.1

Canada: 740.2

Ukraine: 527.1

Australia: 515.2

Others: 1,219