

Stones roll into Rio

The Rolling Stones' forthcoming free concert on Rio de Janeiro's Copacabana Beach is expected to attract crowds of up to 1.5 million, making it one of the biggest rock shows of all time

BIGGEST ROCK SHOW CROWDS

1 Rod Stewart Audience: 3.5m
Copacabana Beach, 1994

2 Garth Brooks 750,000
Central Park, New York, 1997

3 U.S. Festival organized by Apple Computer co-founder Steve Wozniak. Stars include U2, David Bowie and Willie Nelson
Devore, California, 1983 670,000

4 Woodstock Festival. Stars include The Who, Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young and Jimi Hendrix
Upstate New York, 1969 400,000

5 Rolling Stones
Hyde Park, London, 1969 200,000