

Bachelet – first woman president of Chile

■ Sep 29, 1951:
Veronica Michelle Bachelet born in Santiago

■ 1973: *President Salvador Allende killed in military coup. Bachelet's father Alberto detained and tortured by military junta, later dies of a heart attack

■ 1975: Michelle Bachelet and her mother kidnapped, tortured and then exiled to Australia. They settle in East Germany, where she qualifies as a paediatrician

■ 1979: Bachelet returns to Chile, still in iron grip of dictator General Augusto Pinochet

■ 1986-1990: Works secretly as a human rights activist helping children of the tortured and disappeared

■ 1990: Democracy restored in Chile

■ 1994-1997: Bachelet, a lifelong socialist, works for democratic government as adviser to undersecretary of health

■ 1996: Loses bid to become mayor of Santiago suburb Las Condes, but wins praise for her political savvy

■ 2000: As health minister, she begins thorough reform of Chile's antiquated system

■ 2002: As one of world's few female defence ministers, Bachelet's profile begins to soar. She resigns her post and begins campaign for presidency

■ Jan 15, 2006: Bachelet defeats closest rival in a run-off poll, becoming Latin America's first directly elected woman leader

