

Monday, April 10

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2005: U.S. golfer Tiger Woods won his fourth Masters title, ending a slump in which he had not won a major tournament since 2002

1633: Bananas appeared in British shops and markets for the first time

1710: The introduction of copyright laws allowed authors to hold exclusive rights to their work for up to 50 years after their death

1972: More than 50 countries signed a treaty outlawing the stockpiling of biological weapons

2005: A nine-storey garment factory collapsed in Bangladesh, killing at least 73 people