

Saturday, May 6

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2004: The final episode of the popular TV sitcom Friends aired in the U.S., seen by over 51 million fans

1733: Englishman Bob Whittaker beat Italian Tito de Carni in the first ever international boxing match, in London

1856: Psychiatrist Sigmund Freud, founder of psychoanalysis, was born

1976: An earthquake rocked the town of Udine in northern Italy, killing 973 people and leaving 100,000 homeless

2005: Astronomers reported the discovery by the Cassini spacecraft of another moon orbiting Saturn, bringing the total of the ringed planet's known moons to 47