

Sunday, May 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2004: The last span of the Millau Bridge in France, the highest road bridge in the world, was completed

1891: The world's first weightlifting championship was staged at the Cafe Monico in London

1934: The world's first surviving set of quintuplets, the Dionne sisters, were born in Ontario, Canada

1964: The first National Covenant of the Palestine Liberation Organization was drafted in Jerusalem

2005: Niger's premier requested emergency food aid for his poverty-stricken country, decimated by drought and the 2004 locust plague