

Tuesday, June 13

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2005: Pop star Michael Jackson was acquitted of 10 charges of child molestation by a court in California

1893: The first Women's Golf Championship, held at Royal Lytham, was won by Lady Margaret Scott

1927: A ticker tape parade welcomed aviation hero Charles Lindbergh to New York City

1982: Prince Fahd succeeded to the throne of Saudi Arabia following the death of his brother, King Khalid

1989: Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev and German chancellor Helmut Kohl agreed that East and West Germany should be reunited

Picture: Associated Press © GRAPHIC NEWS