

Tuesday, June 27

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1967: The world's first cash dispensing machine began operating at a bank in north London

1693: The first women's magazine, The Ladies' Mercury, was published in London

1847: New York and Boston were linked by telegraph wires

1986: A referendum in Ireland rejected a proposal to allow divorce

2005: Palestinians born in Lebanon were permitted to hold certain jobs in the country, the first time in over 50 years that Palestinian immigrants or their families had been granted the right to work