

Fighter jets collide

Greek and Turkish F16 fighter jets collided in mid-air over the Aegean after the Turkish plane reportedly violated Greek airspace. Aircraft from both countries regularly intercept each other as disputes over airspace and territorial waters have yet to be resolved

Karpathos: Planes collide 19km east of island. Turkish pilot rescued, search underway for Greek pilot