

Mumbai targeted in series of deadly blasts

At least 135 people were killed and hundreds injured in seven near-simultaneous bomb blasts on the suburban rail network of India's financial capital, Mumbai. India's Home Minister Shivraj Patil revealed that the authorities had received information that an attack was imminent, but that the time and place were not known

Western Expressway:
One of world's busiest lines, carrying more than 4.5 million commuters a day

Sources: CNN-IBN Picture: Associated Press

