

Air terror restrictions

Airline passengers have been banned from taking any hand luggage – including liquids and all electrical devices – after British anti-terrorist officers uncovered a plot to blow up planes in mid-flight. All flight essentials must be carried in transparent plastic bags

Items allowed

- ▶ Pocket-size wallets / purses with money, credit cards, identity cards etc
- ▶ Travel documents (passports, tickets)
- ▶ Prescribed medicines. Liquids not permitted unless verified
- ▶ Spectacles / sunglasses, no cases
- ▶ Contact lenses, no bottles of solution
- ▶ Baby food, milk (to be tasted by accompanying adult), nappies etc
- ▶ Female sanitary items, unboxed
- ▶ Tissues (unboxed) / handkerchiefs
- ▶ Keys (but no electrical fobs)

Source: UK Dept. of Transport © GRAPHIC NEWS