

Poland rises to NATO Afghan troops call

Poland has offered 1,000 extra troops to NATO – boosting its existing 100-strong contingent – to support hard-pressed British and Canadian soldiers fighting the Taliban in southern Afghanistan. NATO's top commander General James Jones had called for 2,500 extra troops

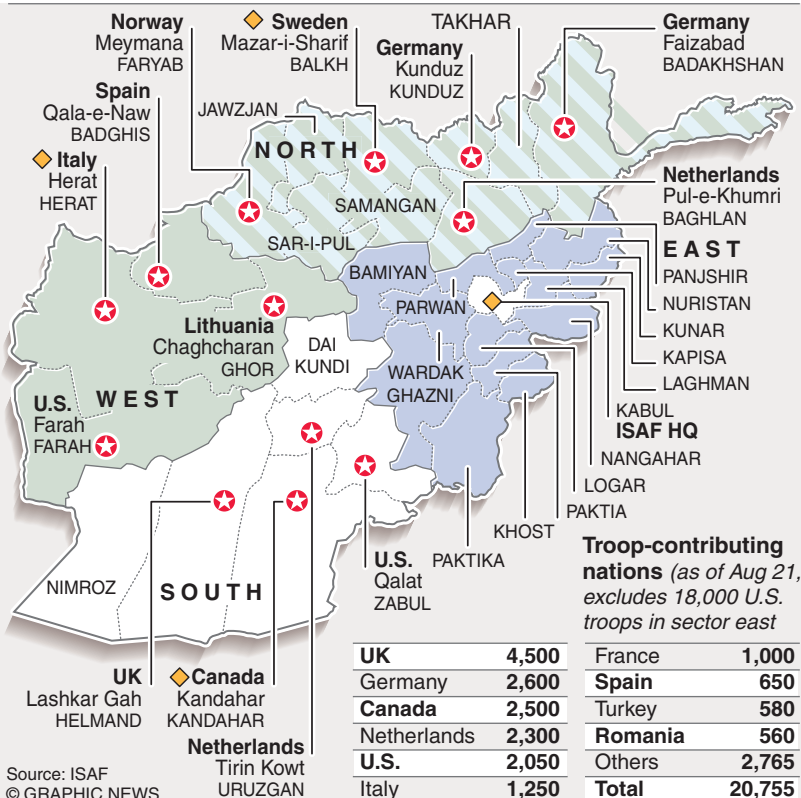

NATO's International Security Assistance Force (ISAF)

◆ Regional command headquarters

★ ISAF provincial reconstruction team:
Lead nation, HQ, PROVINCE

100 miles

160km

Source: ISAF
© GRAPHIC NEWS