

Rebel threat to Nigeria's oil industry

Attacks by separatist militants seeking local control of Nigeria's oil resources in the Niger Delta are cutting almost 10 percent of Nigeria's exports. More than 45 foreign workers have been kidnapped this year and some 30 Nigerian workers have been killed

1 Monday, Cawthorne Channel:

25 Nigerians working for Shell taken hostage, all later released

Nigeria average exports: 2005 (barrels per day)

2.5 million

Royal Dutch Shell
1.1 million

ExxonMobil

Exxon Mobil 800,000

Chevron / ENI 350,000

Total 185,000
Addax 60,000

Exports: July 2006

2.30 million

Exports: August 2006

2.28 million