

Still boldly going after 40 years

Star Trek, the science-fiction franchise that shows no sign of reaching its final frontier, marks the 40th anniversary of its TV debut with a gala celebration and conference

STAR TREK

Starship Enterprise

► 1964: Hollywood TV producer Gene Roddenberry shoots first pilot show

► 1966: First ever Star Trek episode, Where No Man Has Gone Before, broadcast in U.S. on September 8

► 1969: Series cancelled after 79 episodes. Later re-runs make show massive worldwide hit, generating cult following

Voyager crew member Seven of Nine (above)

Dominion space
Bajoran wormhole
Cardassia/Bajor
Deep Space 9
Federation space

► 1979: First movie – Star Trek: The Motion Picture – is box office hit despite $44m cost

► 1982: Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan – widely regarded by fans as best of the 10 films

► 1987-94: Star Trek: The Next Generation (TNG) – new starship and crew make TV debut. Series is very popular, running for 178 episodes

► 1991: Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country – last movie to feature original cast – dedicated to Roddenberry, who died of cardiac arrest before its release

► 1993-99: Star Trek: Deep Space 9 – series set on space station runs for 176 episodes

DS9

► 1994: Star Trek: Generations – Kirk meets Picard in first of four movies featuring TNG cast
TNG's Captain Jean-Luc Picard

► 1995-2001: Star Trek: Voyager – first series to feature female captain. 172 episodes

► 2001-05: Star Trek: Enterprise – prequel to original Star Trek, cancelled after 98 episodes

► 2006: Digitally remastered edition of original series to be released on DVD

► 2008: Eleventh film due for release

