

Asian Games torch relay

Following a lighting ceremony in Doha, Qatar, on October 8, the 2006 Asian Games torch sets off on the longest relay in the history of the Games – travelling over 50,000 kilometres to all 15 former host countries in 55 days

Torch design inspired by curved horns of Arabian Oryx and colours of Qatari flag

3,500 torchbearers will each carry flame over distance of 500m
